

K-LOVE provides me with an opportunity to hear Christian music without commercials, in the Chicaoland area. If it were to be displaced by an LPFM broadcaster providing other programming, I would not be able to enjoy this music, receive relevant information and connect to the Christian community via the air waves. It also provides opportunities for its listeners to call them toll-free for resources, prayer and public service information. Please keep K-LOVE on the air!